As with gladness men of old Did the guiding star behold; As with joy they hailed its light, Leading onward, beaming bright; So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to thee.

Please stand as you are able.

CALL TO WORSHIP

A star shines in the night sky, bewitching the eye with its splendor.

Why do our hearts beat with wonder?

A star shines in the black of night, teasing the imagination with fanciful thoughts.

We are made from more than the dust of the earth,
we are made from the dust of the stars.

A star shines for all to see, heralding the arrival of the star child.

A fire ignites within the soul, Illuminating the path of journeys to come.

OPENING PRAYER

God of starlight, disperse the darkness of our lives, that we may behold the light of your love-- a light that shines in every corner of our world.

Guide our footsteps in the paths of righteousness, that justice may flourish and peace may abound;
that through our own journeys of faith,
we may behold the mystery made known through the coming of your glory in the infant Jesus. Amen.

ANTHEM

The KingsPeter Cornelius

Brittany Griffin, mezzo-soprano

*Three kings from Persian lands afar To Jordan follow the pointing star: And this the quest of the travelers three, Where the newborn King of the Jews may be. Full royal gifts they bear for the King: Gold, incense, myrrh are their offering. The star shines out with a steadfast ray;
The kings to Bethlehem make their way, And there in worship they bend the knee, As Mary's child in her lap they see; their royal gifts they show to the King, Gold, incense, myrrh are their offering. O earthly child, lo, to Bethlehem The kings are trav'ling, travel with them! The star of mercy, the star of grace Shall lead thy heart to its resting place. Gold, incense, myrrh thou canst not bring; Offer thy heart to the infant King, Offer thy heart!*

Ways to GROW

JOIN OUR NEW JANUARY BOOK STUDY ON WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

The New Year brings with it renewed enthusiasm, resolutions and big plans! We hope you will make joining a book study one of those plans! Join Rev. Erin Beall as she leads a discussion-based study of Brené Brown's, Rising Strong. Brown is a magnificent teacher, speaker, and writer, whom you may have heard on NPR or seen on ted.com. Rising Strong is her second book, following her first, number-one bestseller Daring Greatly. Brené specializes in studying shame and fear, and how they can be overcome so that we can be our best selves. Books will be $20 from the church, or you can order your own on your Kindle. Classes will be held on Wednesday evenings from 6:30-7:45 pm in the Circle View Room, and run from January 13 - February 24. For more information contact Erin at ebeall@wesleymemorial.org.

NEW CLASS FOR CHILDREN STARTING IN JANUARY!

After a divorce or separation, kids usually feel scared, sad, and confused. They know you have been hurt deeply. As a result, they may hide their feelings because they are worried about your happiness or because they do not know how to express their feelings appropriately. DivorceCare for Kids (DC4K) helps them process those feelings and gives them tools to communicate better with you. DC4K provides your children with a safe and neutral place to gain an age-appropriate understanding of separation and divorce. They will learn how to process and share their feelings. For 13 weeks your children become involved in a fun, caring group. The weekly session topics help your children learn that God's love strengthens them and helps them turn their sadness to hope and their anger to joy. Children ages 5-12 are welcome. Sessions are supervised by a licensed professional counselor. Stay tuned for more information.

ON THIS COMMUNION SUNDAY ...

We share the addresses of some of our members with health concerns who would like to hear from you. There are cards in the Welcome Folders. Won't you take a moment to write to them? Please address the card. You may mail it yourself or place it at the altar rail or in the offering plate for us to mail.
