PRAYER OF ACCEPTANCE

Most Gracious God,
Accepting the freedom you give us, we step out and away from every force that seeks to constrain love and justice in our own hearts, and we pray:

For all people kept in poverty or slavery,
all who are in fear from abusers, terrorists, and oppressors,
all who face addiction of any kind,
and all who are targeted for unjust treatment because of who they are;

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Accepting the power you give us, we speak and act with courage for the freedom and dignity of every human being and the good of all creation, and we pray:

For leaders in religious, political, economic, and social life;
for our families, friends, and neighbors;
and for all who work to sustain and protect our lives
as military, civilian workers, and first responders;

Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Freed and empowered by you to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in every form in which they present themselves, we band together as Christ's body seeking the deliverance and salvation of all people, and we pray:

for all who need your healing power, and for all who offer healing through their skill and presence; for all who have harmed us, and all whom we have harmed by our action or inaction;

Silence

Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Receive the prayers of your people, most merciful God.
In your compassion, forgive our sins,
and free us for lives of empowered obedience through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the name of Jesus, you are forgiven.

In the name of Jesus, you are forgiven.
Glory to God! Amen!

Ways to GROW

JOIN US FOR A LENTEN STUDY: WEDNESDAY EVENINGS THROUGH APRIL 5

Lent is one of the most special seasons in the life of the Church, as we journey from Ash Wednesday through Holy Week and finally Easter. During this time of penitence and reflection, one of the most fruitful topics for study is that of the Seven Last Words of Christ. Time Magazine-named "America's Best Theologian" Stanley Hauerwas has a book on just this subject titled The Cross-Shattered Christ. Join Rev. Erin Beall Wednesdays in Lent, 6:30-7:45 (after dinner) in the Circle View Room, as we delve into this intriguing and beautiful text on our journey through Lent. Books and registration available at the Front Desk for $15. Childcare available as needed.

LOOKING FOR AN ALTERNATIVE WAY TO READ SCRIPTURE THIS LENT?

Lectio Divina is an ancient practice of using Scripture to read, meditate, and pray. This practice is meant to develop our relationship with God while increasing our knowledge of the Bible. In Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine Reading) the Holy Spirit works in our hearts through four movements: reading, meditation, prayer, and contemplation. Join us at Midweek Communion on Wednesday, March 15 at 11 am in the Chapel to experience this practice. Contact Jared Stine for more information.
