CHILDREN'S MOMENTS

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

After the parents' profession of faith, the pastor asks the congregation:

Do you, as Christ's body, the church, reaffirm both your rejection of sin and your commitment to Christ?

We do.

Will you nurture one another in the Christian faith and life and include Easton in your care?

We will.

After the baptism, the pastor asks the congregation:

Will you welcome our new brother in Christ?

Through baptism we are incorporated by the Holy Spirit into God's new creation and made to share in Christ's royal priesthood. We are all one in Christ Jesus.

With joy and thanksgiving we welcome you as a member of the family of Christ.

Welcome!

Thank you for worshipping with us this morning! Please take a moment to sign the attendance notebooks during the announcements. If you are a guest, please leave your contact information and a pastor will contact you this week with more information about our church.

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON

Isaiah 53: 3-9 (OT pg. 683)

Warren Lackey

O Lord, you saw your daughters and sons in bondage to evil and death, but you did not leave us to struggle alone.

Thanks be to God, that Christ would share our burdens and show us the way to new life!

REQUIEM

Eleanor Daley

REQUIEM AETERNA

Grant them rest eternal, Lord our God, we pray to Thee.

PSALTER #848

Psalms 130

OUT OF THE DEEP

Out of the deep have I called unto Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice. O let Thine ears consider well the voice of my complaint. If Thou Lord wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it? For there is mercy with Thee: therefore shalt Thou be feared. I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for Him: and in His word is my trust. My soul fleeth unto the Lord; before the morning watch, I say, before the morning watch. O Israel, trust in the Lord, for with the Lord there is mercy: and with Him is plenteous redemption. And He shall redeem Israel from their sins.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Revelation 21: 3-6 (NT Pg. 259)

Rick Kelley

O Lord, all the earth grows dark with suffering and fear, yet your promise is of life, and life abundant.

Thanks be to God, who is making all things new!

AND GOD SHALL WIPE AWAY ALL TEARS

I heard a voice out of heaven saying; "Behold, the dwelling of God is with all people and God shall dwell with them and they shall be God's people. God shall be with them and the voice of weeping shall no more be heard; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for Requiem is a term which was used in the early Catholic Church to describe a musical setting of a burial service. Today requiems are used in many Protestant services and refer to sacred compositions with texts suitable for memorial services and the penitential season of Lent. Contemporary composer, Eleanor Daley (b. 1955) has chosen texts that should ultimately leave the listener feeling comforted, hopeful and confident in God's gift of salvation.

the former things are passed away. Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine. (Light eternal shine upon them, Lord.) I am the resurrection and the life saith the Lord; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Ephesians 5: 8-14 (NT pg. 194)

Melanie Bruton

O Lord, the darkness threatens to consume us, but you will not let night rule forever.
Thanks be to God, who brings the dawn, who wakes the sleepers, who opens tombs!

IN REMEMBRANCE

Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there, I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow, I am the diamond glint on snow, I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle morning rain. And when you wake in the morning's hush, I am the sweet uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry, I am not there, I did not die.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Revelation 14: 13 (NT pg. 254)

Samantha Jedlica

O Lord, the fear of death consumes this world, yet you have conquered even that.
Thanks be to God, who makes a way even through the darkest valleys!

I HEARD A VOICE FROM HEAVEN

I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labours: even so saith the spirit."

READING

John 14: 1-4, 18-19, 25-27 (NT pg. 108)

Debbie Foust

O Lord, sorrow and fear build walls and wars between your people, but you have promised us peace.
Thanks be to God, who is parent to the orphan, friend to the friendless, lover of the unloved, and Savior of even sinners like us. Amen

THOU KNOWEST, LORD

In the midst of life we are in death. Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; shut not Thy merciful ears to our prayer; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and merciful Saviour, Thou most worthy Judge Eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour, for any pains of death to fall from Thee.

REQUIEM AETERNAM

Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, dona eis sempiternam requiem. (Grant them eternal rest, Lord our God, we pray to Thee, grant them everlasting rest.)

IN PARADISUM

Go forth upon Thy journey from this world, O Christian soul, in the name of God the Father, the Son and Holy Spirit, in company with the blessed angels and archangels and all the heavenly host. May Thy portion this day be in peace and Thy dwelling place in Jerusalem. In paradisum deducant angeli, in tuo adventu suscipiant te martyres, et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Jerusalem, Chorus angelorum te suscipiat, et cum Lazaro quondam paupere, aeternam habeas requiem. (May angels receive Thee in paradise. At Thy coming may the martyrs receive Thee and bring Thee into the Holy city Jerusalem. May the choir of angels receive Thee and with Lazarus, once a beggar, may Thou have eternal rest.)

HYMN No. 188
