OFFERTORY ANTHEM

How Blessed Is This Place, O Lord..... Paul Bouman

Chancel Choir

How blessed is this place, O Lord, Where you are worshiped and adored; In faith we here an altar raise To your great glory, God of praise. Here let your sacred fire of old Descend to kindle spirits cold; And may our prayers, when here we bend, Like incense sweet to you ascend. Here let the weary one find rest, The troubled heart, your comfort blest, The guilty one a sure retreat, The sinner, pardon at your feet. Here your angelic spirits send Their solemn praise with ours to blend, And grant the vision, only giv'n, Of this your house, the gate of heav'n.

Please stand as you are able.

Ways to GROW

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED JOINING A UNITY GROUP AT WESLEY MEMORIAL?

It is usually within a small group that people are able to explore and grow in their faith. Unity Groups, a form of small group ministry, offers you just such a setting. Unity Groups meet regularly for study, prayer, accountability, fellowship, and mission. They can be set up for just women, just men, or both. For more information about Unity Groups and other Adult Spiritual Formation opportunities available at Wesley Memorial visit: www.wesleymemorial.org

SAVE THE DATE – WOW Bible Study of Nehemiah will begin on August 28 in the Youth Gathering Space at 9:10 am.

HELP US IDENTIFY WESLEY MEMORIAL'S FALLEN SERVICE MEMBERS

As our country prepares to commemorate the 70th Anniversary of the D-Day Invasion, our Wesley Memorial Historical Committee is currently compiling a record of all church members who have lost their lives while serving our country. We are searching for any fallen heroes dating back to the beginning of our church in 1856.

If your family lost a loved one who was a member of Wesley Memorial and gave the ultimate sacrifice in any branch of military service during any conflict, please contact Vicki Shipman @ 885-6362 with details so their service and memory may be preserved for future generations.
