Thou art, O God, the life and light of all this wondrous world we see; its glow by day its smile by night, are but reflections caught from Thee! Where'er we turn, thy glories shine, and all things fair and bright are thine. When day with farewell beam, delays among the opening clouds of Even, and we can almost think we gaze through golden vistas in to heaven those hues that make the sun's decline so soft, so radiant Lord are thine. When night, with wings of starry gloom, e're shadows all the earth and skies, like some dark beauteous bird, whose plume is sparkling with unnumbered eyes that sacred gloom, those fires divine, so grand, so countless, Lord! are thine. When youthful Spring around us breathes, Thy Spirit warms her fragrant sigh; and every flower the Summer wreathes, is born beneath that kindling eye, where'er we turn, thy glories shine, and all things fair and bright are Thine.
